

Dear Researchers,

It is a great pleasure for us to inform you that the latest issue of IOJES (Volume 10, Issue 2) has been published and it can be accessible on the journal's website: <http://www.iojes.net/OncekiSayilarDetay.aspx?Sayi=2>

The technical infrastructure of our journal has been completely changed. By the help of this new system both authors and researchers will be offered a better service. We would like to thank you for your understanding and tolerance in solving the problems experienced in this process.

We are confident that all the articles published in our journal will contribute a lot to the field of education. We will continue to strive to make sure that the next issues of our journal are better both in terms of functioning and quality. We are grateful to our reserachers who contributed to the publishing process of the journal and also to our reviewers who examined the manuscripts rigorously.

I would also like to thank all of our editorial board members and technical staff for their extraordinary effort and enthusiasm in this transition period. I wish you success in your academic study by stating that we would be happy to see your further contributions to our journal.

Regards.
